About BAMT Conference 2024

The BAMT Conference attracts a significant number of Music Therapists, as well as researchers, academics, practitioners, and colleagues from other Allied Health Professions and related fields, such as Arts in Health, Music Psychology, Education, Health and Social care.

Promoting your brand at the Exhibition Stands

Exhibiting at the conference provides you with the opportunity to demonstrate your products and services, whilst networking with conference delegates.

Why book a stand?

- Showcase your products and services to delegates.
- Network and develop partnerships with delegates and other organisations.
- Meet and talk with your customers.
- An opportunity to launch a new product or publication.

What is included?

Sponsorship enables you to reach all conference delegates attending at Leicester.

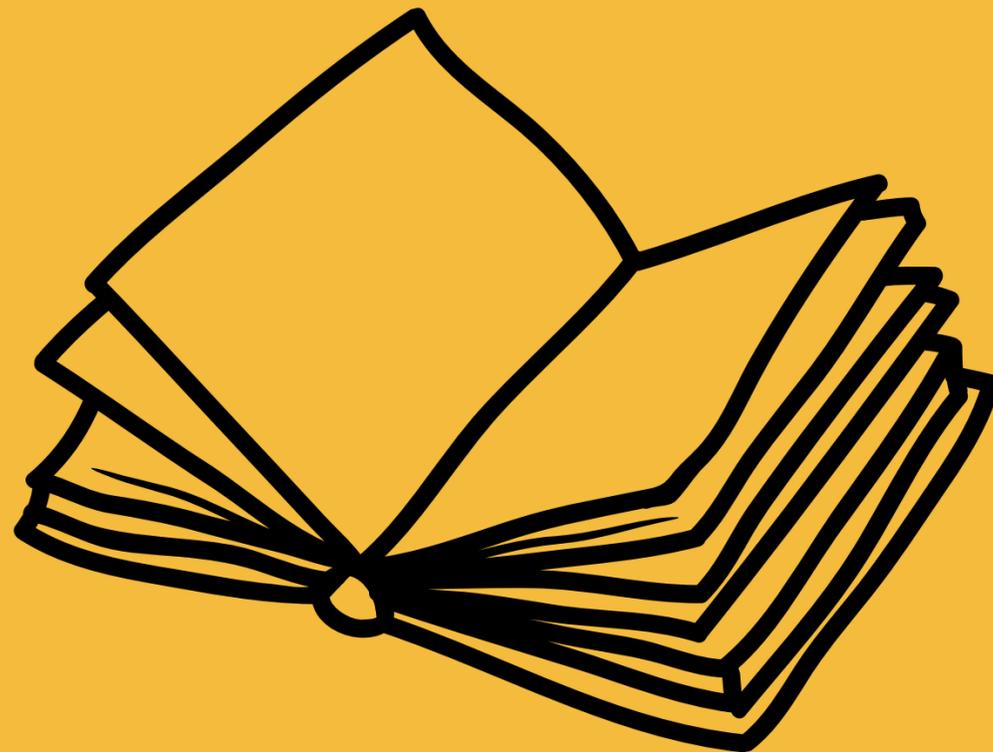

All of our sponsorship bundles can be customised to suit your promotional needs. Please contact us for further information and to discuss options.

In addition, you will receive:

- Your logo on our website along with a description of your service and a link to your website
- Listing in the eBook of Abstracts, sent to all delegates

Advertising in the Conference eBook of Abstracts

Every delegate receives a conference eBook of Abstracts as part of their conference ticket. They receive access to this prior to the conference so they can plan their time. The eBook of Abstracts includes the full conference programme, map of the venue, visitor information, and details of related conference events.

The logo for the British Association for Music Therapy (BAMT) is centered at the bottom of the page. It features the acronym 'BAMT' in a large, bold, dark blue font. To the right of 'BAMT', the full name 'BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR MUSIC THERAPY' is written in a smaller, dark blue, all-caps font, arranged in two lines. Behind the text, there are several thin, light blue, curved lines that sweep upwards and to the right, creating a sense of movement and flow.
