

Competition Compliance Statement

The Mondi Group ("Mondi") is going to organize an event, the Let's Paper the World Summit 2025, in the Marriott Hotel Prague Old Town and if the participant wishes, to extend the event with a mill visit in Steti (PM10 inauguration) from 03-06 November 2025. The agenda of for this event is attached to this Statement. This event is clearly not intended to influence the competitive decisions of independent companies and their representatives attending this event, nor in any way to restrict competition among such companies / representatives or vis-à-vis third parties.

At the same time, Mondi is aware that this event brings together representatives some of which compete against each other. While none of the items on our agenda are inclined to be competitively sensitive and there is certainly no attempt by Mondi to restrain competition in any manner, nevertheless Mondi recognizes the possibility that the event could be seen as a potential opportunity for anticompetitive conduct. For this reason, Mondi takes the opportunity, through this Statement, to make clear its unequivocal support for the policy of competition served by the antitrust laws and its uncompromising intent to comply strictly in all respects with these laws:

1.

Mondi is fully committed to complying with its obligations under the applicable competition law regimes of the EU and Czechia.

2.

Attendees at this event must not enter into any discussion, activity or conduct that may, in any way, infringe applicable competition laws. They confirm to have understood and accepted this obligation signing this Statement.

3.

The obligation to adhere to competition laws as stated above includes, by way of example, a commitment by attendees not to discuss, communicate or exchange any commercially sensitive information (whether before, during or after the event) with its competition, neither directly or indirectly via intermediates, including any non-public information relating to prices, capacities, costs, revenues, trading terms and conditions or purchasing strategies, or discuss taking collective action against any organization or third party in response to industry pressure.

4.

Attendees at this event are responsible for themselves to observe the requirements of competition laws. This implies that they should make themselves familiar with their legal obligations in case of doubt.

By registering to the event you agree to the compliance statement.

Attachment: Agenda